State Democratic Convention.

We are authorized to state that the Democratic Central Committee, who have been requested to name the time and place for holding a Convention of the Democratic party of Kentucky, for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and the transaction of other matters pertaining to politics, recommended to the party that they meet in State Convention at Frankfort, on the 15th day of March, 1855.

Mr. Messrs. H. Evans & Co. commenced moving their establishment yesterday in the store-room immediately under the Yeoman Office. They have a beautiful room, a fine location, and we predict for them a business more flourishing, if possible, than heretofore.

The January number of Godley's Lady's Book, is upon our table, and is really a beautiful number—indeed, we think it is superior in beauty to any number heretofore issued. Subscribe immediately, or you will be too late for the volume just commenced.

Mr. JEFF. EVANS, formerly a member of the Legislature from Greenup county, was placed in the Penitentiary at this place on Saturday last, agreeable to sentence.

Executed—HARRY OLIVER, a convict in the penitentiary, made his escape from a building on Main street, where he was working, on Thursday last. He was concerned in Louisville for stealing, and had only about three months to serve.

From the annual report of the Secretary of the United States Treasury, accompanying the President's Message, we make the following extracts:

The Table of exports and imports shows the imports $24,321,117 in excess of the exports.

The following statement of the Secretary to the propriety of reducing the revenue for economical administration of the government. The statement of duty, viz: One hundred, forty, and twenty-five per cent, in place of the eight, schedules at present in use. The recommendation for the repeal of the fishing duties is removed, and the subject of drawback of duties on refined sugar is also recommended to Congress.

The statement of the Secretary gives the total amount of gold and silver coin in circulation, September 30th, 1854, $21,000,000; the total bank circulation of $20,000,000.

The Secretary is opposed to circulation of notes of small denomination, recommends the continuation of the coin survey, calls for further aid for preserving human life from shipwrecks on our coasts, and suggests that the law should provide greater safety in the case of non-passenger vessels.

The following portions of the meeting at the Danville and Lexington railroad bridge, on Saturday, the 21st inst., were copied from the Danville Tribune, of Friday last:

We attended the meeting at the railroad bridge on Saturday last. A large number of citizens of Boyle, Jessamine, and Fayette were present, and were addressed by Gen. Owen in a speech full of interest to the friends of the road. An excellent dinner was furnished by Mr. Gowen, the efficient Agent in Charge of the bridge. After the dinner we were compelled to disperse, as we could not make time to describe the bridge, and our next.

His Statistics—We have our usual weekly summary of the number of horses killed up to this date. The statistics are very high, and none of the horses were killed by a horse. The number of horses killed by a horse, and not by a horse, is 100, being 100 less than the number of horses killed by a horse, and not by a horse.
